Thirteen years ago, Evelyn Adcock walked away from the man she loved. Hidden away in the country, she thought she'd left her previous life and the pain behind. And she had, until he walked into her employer's drawing room. Evelyn was the last person Marcellin Blair thought he'd see when answering a summons from his great aunt. He'd never forgiven her for breaking their engagement and his heart. Determined to make her hurt as much as he had, he hounds her. But nothing is as it seems, not even the past, and perhaps, with the help of a scheming great aunt and judiciously placed mistletoe, they can have their second chance at love.

Twenty years have passed since six-year-old Lucas Dubois witnessed the gruesome murders of his family, leaving him to face the world alone. Now twenty-six-year-old Lucas receives an anonymous letter stating that the murderer has never been found, and the case is closed. As Lucas is led into a trap, he returns home to Augusta, Louisiana, and finds more than he bargained for as he teams with the notorious bayou witch Shara Dupree. It will be one discovery after another for Lucas as he is taken down a path of witchcraft and sorcery only to find he is not so alone after all. Now, answering a summons as old as time itself, Lucas will be forced to fulfill a prophecy—the legacy of the demon passing.

Step back in time and travel with Rochambeau as he rides through the night to the Palace of Versailles, answering a summons from King Louis XVI. Sail with Rochambeau as he and his 42-ship convoy cross the Atlantic on an exhausting 70-day voyage to America. Sit by his side as his carriage travels to meet with George Washington for their first face-to-face conference in Hartford, Connecticut. Enjoy the tension between the two generals as their strategy emerges. Stand beside Rochambeau as he proudly watches his handsome French troops depart from Newport, Rhode Island, to begin their two hundred mile march to join forces with Washington's army above the Hudson. Stand near him in Chester, Pennsylvania, as he watches an overjoyed Washington twirl his hat in the air on hearing that the long-awaited French navy under Admiral De Grasse had arrived in the Chesapeake. Ride at his side in the sweltering sun during the grueling trek from New York to Williamsburg, Virginia. Listen in as he rallies his troops at the Battle of Yorktown. And observe how Cornwallis grudgingly surrenders his sword at the final battle of the American Revolution.
